TITLE 10 > Subtitle C > PART I > CHAPTER 503 > § 5022*§ 5022. Office of Naval Research: duties

Release date: 2005-07-12

(1) There is in the Office of the Secretary of the Navy an Office of Naval Research.

(2) Unless appointed to higher grade under another provision of law, an officer, while serving in the Office of Naval Research as Chief of Naval Research, has the rank of rear admiral.

(b) The Office of Naval Research shall perform such duties as the Secretary of the Navy prescribes relating to—

(1) the encouragement, promotion, planning, initiation, and coordination of naval research;

(2) the conduct of naval research in augmentation of and in conjunction with the research and development conducted by the bureaus and other agencies and offices of the Department of the Navy;

(3) the supervision, administration, and control of activities within or for the Department relating to patents, inventions, trademarks, copyrights, and royalty payments, and matters connected therewith; and

(4) the execution of, and management responsibility for, programs for which funds are provided in the basic and applied research and advanced technology categories of the Department of the Navy research, development, test, and evaluation budget in such a manner that will foster the transition of science and technology to higher levels of research, development, test, and evaluation.

(c) Sufficient information relative to estimates of appropriations for research by the several bureaus and offices shall be furnished to the Office of Naval Research to assist it in coordinating naval research and carrying out its other duties.

(d) The Office of Naval Research shall perform its duties under the authority of the Secretary, and its orders are considered as coming from the Secretary.

Subj: DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

Ref: (a) SECNAV memo of 23 Dec 85; subj: Reorganization of Patent Lawyers

1. The purpose of this memorandum is to delegate authorities to Offices of Counsel within the Office of the General Counsel to enable them to effectively implement Navy patent policy in accordance with reference (a) and conduct an effective patent program for the Navy.

2. The following authorities are delegated to addressees with authority to redelegate to senior attorneys registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (PTO):

a. To make charges against the Office of the Chief of Naval Research's (OCNR) deposit account in the PTO for the conduct of official Navy business in the PTO. This authority may be delegated to no more than two senior patent attorneys in any one office. (So proper notification may be made to the PTO of the individuals authorized to make charges against the OCNR's deposit account in the PTO, addressees should notify the undersigned as soon as possible of the names of the individuals to whom the authority is to be redelegated).

b. To investigate, deny or recommend settlement of administrative claims for infringement of patents or copyrights. All settlement agreements must be approved by and signed in the OCNR.

c. To make application for registration of trademarks for Navy marks and to file oppositions to applications for registration of conflicting marks by others, and to make all decisions affecting those proceedings. (All declarations in accordance with 37 CFR §2.20 and appointment of attorneys of record must be forwarded to OCNR Code OCCC for signature by the Chief of Naval Research (CNR) or, in the absence of the CNR, by his Deputy).

Subj: DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

3. The following authorities are delegated to addressees and should be redelegated to the senior patent attorney or his alternate at each naval activity:

a. To file applications for patents and Statutory Invention Registrations (SIRs) in the PTO and to make all decisions affecting the prosecution of these applications.

b. To evaluate Navy inventions and make determinations of the type of protection (patent, SIR or publication), if any, required by the Navy for inventions originating at their respective naval activities and contractors. (This is an interim delegation and its effectiveness will be reviewed by the OCNR after a sufficient trial period. Addressees are encouraged to either recommend continuation of this delegation or to submit proposed revisions of the delegation to the OCNR for consideration.)

c. To determine rights in inventions made by Navy employees in accordance with Executive Order 10096 and 37 CFR Part 100. All reports and documents to be submitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (PTO) in support of those rights determinations will be submitted to the Deputy Counsel (Patents), OCNR, or his designee for review and transmittal to the PTO.

4. The following authority is delegated to addressees without authority to redelegate:

a. To appoint attorneys to continue prosecution of applications for patents and SIRs and transact all business in the PTO connected therewith in cases where the originally appointed attorneys are not available.

5. The Navy position on regulations and legislation dealing with intellectual property matters shall be formulated in OCNR. Addressees are invited and encouraged to present their views and the views of their client activities to the OCNR for consideration.

6. It is our intention to maintain a smoothly running and effective patent program for the Navy. The delegations contained herein are intended to meet these goals. Comments and recommendations based on operating experience under the delegations contained herein will be invited.
